25 fer storage, the factors controlling the rate of hori-

1 zontal and vertical migration of water within the 2 High Plains Aquifer, and the current and past rate

2 eral component shall include interdisciplinary studies
3 that add value to hydrogeologic characterization,
4 mapping, modeling and monitoring for the High
5 Plains Aquifer.

6 (d) STATE PROGRAM COMPONENT.—

7 (1) PRIORITIES.—Upon election by a High 8 Plains Aquifer State, the State may participate in 9 the State component of the Program which shall 10 have as its priorities hydrogeologic characterization, 11 mapping, modeling, and monitoring activities in 12 areas of the High Plains Aquifer that will assist in 13 addressing issues relating to groundwater depletion
14 and resource assessment of the Aquifer. As a condi-
15 tion of participating in the State component of the 16 Program, the Governor or Governor's designee shall 17 appoint a State panel representing a broad range of 18 users of, and persons knowledgeable regarding,
19 hydrogeologic data and information, which shall be

6 by this title. In the event that the State geologi-7 cal survey is unable to utilize the funding for 8 such purposes, the Secretary may, upon the pe-9 tition of the Governor of the State, direct the 10 funding to some other agency of the State to 11 carry out the purposes of the Program.

14 State component of the Program, the remaining
15 funds under the State component shall be com-
16 petitively awarded to State or local agencies or 17 entities in the High Plains Aquifer States, in-18 cluding State geological surveys, State water
19 management agencies, institutions of higher
20 education, or consortia of such agencies or enti-
21 ties. A State may submit a proposal for the 22 United States Geological Survey to undertake 23 activities and provide technical capabilities not 24 available at the State and local levels. Such 25 funds shall be awarded by the Director only for proposals that have been recommended by the State panels referred to in subsection (d)(1), subjected to independent peer review, and given final prioritization and recommendation by the Federal Review Panel established under subsection (e). Proposals for multistate activities must be recommended by the State panel of at least one of the affected States.
